A MESSAGE FROM THE LIBRARIAN: We have recently carried out a full inventory of the College library. A number of volumes are missing from the shelves. They may well have been left inadvertently on someone's bookshelf. We are making an appeal to all former students and other library users to scour their bookshelves. We would ask that you leave books found at the Baptist Centre Reception. No questions will be asked! All books are clearly stamped with the College name. Thank you and please make this request know to anyone else who may not receive this magazine.
